

General and Operations Manager

General and Operations Managers plan, direct, or coordinate the day-to-day operations of companies or organizations that make products or provide services. They work in many different settings, such as corporate headquarters for large businesses, government agencies, manufacturing plants, and schools. A large number work for consulting or management firms and provide expertise in areas such as strategic planning, policy making, and material uses and needs.

Employees in this field must have at least an Associate's Degree. The job of General and Operations Managers will appeal to people who are good communicators, organized, detail-oriented, and who like to solve problems.

Brazos Valley Mean Wage
$107,981 ($51.91/hr.)

Statewide Mean Wage
$113,180 ($54.41/hr.)

Above table shows the average wage for General and Operations Managers in the Brazos Valley and State of Texas.

